

Prayer inspired by 1 Cor 6: 19

Speak to my heart, Lord, when I'm tempted to sin.
Let me remember that you dwell within.
This humble vessel, sanctified by your grace,
Has become, through your mercy, the very place
Where God has his dwelling.
Lord, help me to be
Ever open to the promptings of your Spirit in me.

Speak to my heart, Lord, and help me to choose
That this holy temple be a place you can use
In blessing to others, who need your great love.
Enable me to tell them of the Saviour above,
Who is ready and willing to dwell in them too.
Lord Jesus, all glory and honour to you.
